

MAGNIFY HIM
with thanksgiving

† THANKSGIVING EVE †

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church
Corcoran, Minnesota

“Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good. His love endures forever. [He] gives food to every creature. He provides food for the cattle and for the young ravens when they call. His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse, nor His delight in the legs of a man; the Lord delights in those who fear Him, who put their hope in His unfailing love. (Psalm 136:1, 25; 147:9-11)”
(Luther's Small Catechism, Returning Thanks)

What Is Giving Thanks, Really?

Old Testament worship can be challenging for modern Christians. After all, Leviticus and Psalms sound so different from our worship. Yet, what I have learned is just how fascinating and similar these forms of worship are when we study them closely. Let's take thanksgiving as an example!

The Thank Offering (Lev. 7:12-15) was very different from the Sin Offerings that we often associate with OT worship. Thank offerings were voluntary and happened whenever the individual had reason to give thanks. An Israelite who had prayed to God for help and received what he prayed for made a special trip to the Temple and offered a Thank Offering... literally “giving thanks” to God.

The offering was an animal, given to the priest to kill and cook on the altar, BUT- unlike the sin offerings- this animal was not burned up on the altar. The meat was given back to the thankful Israelite and his family would feast!

See, that's not so foreign. God blesses us. We return a portion to Him, giving thanks. He says, “That's nice, now see what I will do with it.” And He gives it back to us by the hands of His ministers to bless us more. Grace upon grace!

In addition to the holy meat, the thanks-giver brought bread, some of which the priest received and ate, the rest went back to the Israelite for the thanksgiving feast. And what is thanksgiving without singing? This offering also included songs of thanksgiving such as Psalm 30 or 116.

None of this has disappeared! In the Lord's Supper, the thank offerings we bring of bread and wine are given back to us, but better! Jesus gives His own flesh for meat, under the bread, and hosts this banquet for our blessing and celebration. No wonder the Church has called this a Eucharist (thanksgiving). Thank the Lord and sing His praise, tell everyone what He has done.

St. Luke 17:11-19 (Jesus heals ten lepers, but only one thanks Him)

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem [Jesus] was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance ¹³and lifted up their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.” ¹⁴When he saw them he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went they were cleansed. ¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; ¹⁶and he fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then Jesus answered, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?”

¹⁹And he said to him, “Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well.”

P: O Lord, have mercy on us.

C: Thanks be to God.
